

DEATHS DURING THE PAST WEEK

1942 MRS. D. A. COLLINS

Mrs. D. A. Collins passed away Wednesday evening, January 21, at nine o'clock at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dennis, following an illness of several weeks. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Center Street Methodist church where she held her membership. Services were conducted by Rev. Gregory Pool assisted by Rev. G. E. Poole. Burial was in Maplewood cemetery.

As Nannie May Huett, daughter of Adolphus R. and Sarah A. Huett, she was born June 11, 1869 near Redman in Macon county and her girlhood was spent in that vicinity. On January 1, 1891 she was married to David A. Collins, who preceded her in death February 16, 1939. Mr. and Mrs. Collins lived on a farm near Nickellton until 1928 when they moved to Clarence.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Irma Dennis and Mrs. Letha Petree, both of Clarence, and five grandchildren, Dean and Neal Dennis, Delos and Clarimae Petree, all of Clarence and Dale Petree, who is in the U. S. Army with the 180th Infantry in lower California near Mexico.

One sister, Mrs. Mary Harvey, of Santa Ana, Calif., and four brothers, Harry Huett of Casper, Calif., George Huett of Bevier, and Will and Norman Huett of near Clarence survive also.

DEATHS DURING THE PAST WEEK

RUDOLPH RESA

1942

Rudolph Resa passed away Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Maupin, following several weeks illness of a broken hip.

Son of Ben and Ella Resa he was born March 13, 1853 in Germany. When two years of age he came to the United States with his parents, three brothers and two sisters. They located in Wisconsin and later moved to Mt. Pulaski, Ill., where he met and married Miss Frances Josephine Spivey, who preceded him in death March 26, 1939 at the age of 82.

A few years after their marriage they came to Missouri and he has lived in and near Clarence for more than 60 years.

Mr. Resa was a member of the Baptist church where funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. George Lamken. Burial was in the Maplewood cemetery.

Pallbearers were Carl Roy, J. O. Block, I. E. Clem, C. E. Oylear, E. M. Hunsaker and J. E. Daniel.

He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Nora Maupin and Mrs. Anna Moore of Clarence, Mrs. Virgie Mayfield of Cleveland, Okla., and Mrs. Ethel Kuhner of Quincy, Ill., and one son, Willie Resa, of near Clarence. Ten grandchildren and several great grandchildren survive also. Three children preceded him in death.

PIONEER LADY LAID TO REST

Mrs P. G. Withers Passed Away Last Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. P. G. Withers, who passed away at her home in Clarence Thursday, were held at the Christian church here Saturday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. Elba Martin. Burial was in the Maplewood cemetery.

Mrs. Withers had been seriously ill six weeks and death was attributed to the infirmities of old age. Her daughters were with her at the time of her passing.

As Christie Bowling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowling, she was born in Paris Nov. 20, 1853, being 88 years, 11 months and 29 days of age when she passed away. She attended Cradle of Science school located half-way between Shelby and Paris.

On Feb. 22, 1871 she was married to Perry Gentry Withers, the ceremony taking place at the home of her mother. Unusual is the fact that the minister who officiated at her wedding, Rev. Will Featherstone, had also baptized her when at the age of 16 she became a member of the church and he was formerly a teacher of the school she attended.

In 1877 Mr. and Mrs. Withers moved into the community south of Clarence in order that their cattle might have a larger grazing range. Here they faced the dangers of prairie pioneers.

They attended the dedication service of the Union church south of Clarence, when Rev. Featherstone of near Paris made the dedication address.

In 1906 they purchased residence property in the northwest part of Clarence where they lived until they passed away. Mr. Withers preceded her in death in 1935 at the age of 91.

Survivors are six children, W. Gentry Withers, south of Clarence, Mrs. Nancy Maud Edwards, Hollywood, Calif., Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, who made her home with her mother, Aubrey B. Withers, Chula Vista, Calif., Mrs. Stella M. Robinson, Palmyra, and Mrs. Ruby A. Wood of Hannibal. Ten grandchildren and eight great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews survive also.

HERMAN BANGE

1840

Herman Bange, 50, passed away in the state sanitarium for tuberculosis at Mt. Vernon where he had been taken two weeks before.

He was born in St. Louis Dec. 31, 1890. He was married in February, 1916 to Miss Salome Bichsel, who died five years ago. For several years he has lived on a farm northeast of Clarence.

Survivors are eight children, Mrs. Cleve Timbrook, south of Clarence, Marie Bange, who teaches Chick school near Shelbyville, Antone, Rosalee, Louvenia, Evelyn, Margaret and Frances of the home.

Funeral services were conducted from St. Michaels Catholic church near Hagers Grove Monday morning at nine o'clock. Rev. John P. Gallagher was the clergyman in charge. Burial was in the church cemetery.

a member of the Baptist church. For over 20 years he served as superintendent of the Baptist church here and was an ordained deacon. He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge for over 40 years.

During his lifetime he had been associated with his father in an implement store, the J. I. Case Threshing Machine Co., and the American Cable Manufacturing Co. The last few years he had lived quietly in his home in Clarence.

Besides Mrs. Swinney he is survived by his son, Everett Lee Swinney and wife and grandson, Everette Lee III, of Ada, Ohio, a brother, Emmett D. Swinney, or Shelby, and three sisters, Mrs. Mattie Hawkins, Leonard; Mrs. Alice Mathews, St. Louis, and Mrs. Cornelius of California.

The funeral was conducted at the home at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon by Rev. Geo. Lamken, pastor of the Baptist church. Members of the Odd Fellows lodge were pallbearers. Interment was in Maplewood cemetery.

J. R. BOYNTON

Johnathan R. Boynton, son of Wm. and Armanda Boynton, was born in Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 26, 1847, and passed away Nov. 25, 1941 at the age of 93 years, 10 months and 29 days.

In 1863 he moved by covered wagon to Douglass county, Ill., where six years later he was married to Lucetta R. Fuller, Aug. 10, 1871. To this union six children were born, Charley E., who died in infancy, James C., Arthur D., Elmer E., and Flora E., who together with their mother have preceded him in death. One son, Ira T., survives.

In 1886 he moved with his family to College Mound, ten miles southwest of Macon, where he operated a blacksmith shop. In 1919 he came to Clarence where he made his home until his death.

On April 10, 1926 he was united in marriage to Mrs. Sutton, who also preceded him in death.

Mr. Boynton professed his faith in Christ at an early age.

Besides the son he is survived by a step-son, Arthur Sutton, five grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the

HUGO BOLING, SR.

Following an illness of several weeks, Hugo Boling, Sr., 81, passed away Saturday, March 1, 1941, at his home southeast of Clarence where he had lived for 57 years.

The son of Henry and Frances Schmidt Boling, natives of Germany, he was born June 29, 1859 in Beloit, Wis. While he was quite young his parents came to Missouri and established a home southeast of Clarence.

On Nov. 30, 1884 he was married to Lena Bletzinger, whose parents were natives of Germany also. To this union were born four children, one daughter, Mrs. Notley Smith, and three sons, Fred and Hugo Boling, Jr., of Lentner, and Lee, who passed away in June, 1936. His wife passed away March 11, 1939.

Mr. Boling was one of a family of nine children. Two sisters, Mrs. Peter Jochims of Milwaukee, and Mrs. Bal Rutledge of Clarence and one brother, Henry Boling, of Clarence, preceded him in death. Surviving brothers are: Hans Boling of Lentner, Will, Paul and Mox Boling of near Clarence, and Enno Boling of Clarence. He is also survived by eleven grand children, Marjorie Boling, Margaret Ann, Betty Allyn and Stewart Boling, Mrs. Victor Hubble, Misses Lena, Maxie and Dorothy Smith, Jack Boling and Mrs. Richard Thomas, and one great grandchild, Richard Lee Thomas.

Mr. Boling farmed extensively and for many years has been a prominent stockman of Shelby county. He was a member of the Lentner Christian church. The high esteem in which he was held by his friends and acquaintances was indicated Monday when the church was packed to capacity by those paying him last respects.

Funeral services were held Monday, March 3, at the Clarence Christian church, conducted by Rev. Alfred Munyon of Marceline. Burial was in the Maplewood cemetery.

home at 10:30 o'clock this morning with Rev. Sneed in charge. Burial was in Mt. Salem cemetery near Excello.

HANS K. BOLING

Sept 1942

Monday evening at five o'clock Hans K. Boling passed away suddenly at his home while doing his evening farm chores. Death was due to a heart attack.

Son of Henry and Frances Schmidt Boling, natives of Germany, he was born November 16, 1875 southwest of Clarence. On February 21, 1897 he was married to Miss Ida M. Kidwell.

Mr. Boling was one of a family of nine children. Two sisters, Mrs. Peter Jochims of Milwaukee and Mrs. Bal Rutledge of Clarence, and two brothers, Henry and Hugo Boling, of Clarence preceded him in death. He was a member of the Oak Ridge Baptist church.

He is survived by his wife, two adopted daughters, Mrs. Pearl Able of Stoutsville and Mrs. Fern Philliber of Shelby, a grandson, Dale Able, four brothers, William, Enno and Mox, of Clarence and Paul of Shelby, and thirty nephews and nieces.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist church in Clarence conducted by Rev. J. L. Shoemaker of Shelby assisted by Rev. Geo. W. Lamken. Burial was in the Maplewood cemetery.

Pallbearers were Hugo Boling, Jr., Fred Boling, Oscar Boling, John Boling, Harold White and Alva Collins.