

tended services regularly. A member of the Boy Scout troupe 29 of Clarence he was active in basketball and chorus and glee club in the high school. He had been accepted as a pre-natal student at Central college, Fayette, for the next fall term and had been making plans toward his work and activities in the school. Also his plans were to continue his music.

Funeral rites were conducted from the Christian church in Clarence Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock with Rev. Max Horner, pastor of the church in charge. Being assisted by Rev. F. W. Rigg, Methodist minister and Rev. Ford Miller, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene. Two of his favorite selections were sung "Have Thine Own Way" by a trio, composed of Misses Nadean Farmer, Charlotte Thompson and Loua Rigg accompanied by Miss Bettie Craig, music instructor in the high school, while Rev. Horner sang "Good Night and Good Morning" accompanied by Mrs. Horner.

Girls of the senior class were flower girls and pall bearers were: Edward Harvey, Bob Clark, Bob Spencer, Dale Brown, Kent Smay and Billy Don Schwada, while the remainder of the boys of the senior class were honorary pall bearers.

In addition to his parents, Jimmy is survived by one uncle, B. A. Holland, of Puttsburgh, Pa., two aunts, Mrs. Albert D. Long and Mrs. W. L. Peterman, of Clarence and one cousin, Robert H. Sowers, Mrs. Fred Spence and Mrs. Paul Zwerner of Terre Haute, Ind., Mrs. Robert Johnston of Fort Wayne, Ind., James C. Holland of Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. M. A. Hansen of Quantico, Va., Mrs. Robert Vickers, Jr., Miss Beulah Dee Long and Albert Walker Long, of Clarence.

Among those from out of town attending the funeral services were: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Haden of Shelbyna, Misses Opal Walker and Ruth Browitt of Macon, Mrs. Tucker Haden of Moberly, Mrs. Herbert Pitts of Chicago, Mrs. Charles Musick and son, Ben W., of Kingfisher, Okla.

FARM HOUSE OCCUPIED BY JOHN MAUPIN BURNS

Saturday evening about 7:00 o'clock, the four room frame house on the farm formerly occupied by Jeff Timbrook and the late Mrs. Timbrook south of Lentner, which is now owned by John Gorby of Lentner, was completely destroyed by fire of unknown origin. John Maupin who occupied the house at the time of the fire, was able to save only a few of his bedclothes and two chairs. Although no insurance was carried on the contents of the house some was held on the building.

Jack White who underwent an appendectomy recently is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter White, and recuperating. Although he is improving nicely he thinks that he will not return to his duties at the John Deere plant in Moline, Ill., until May 1.

TAYLOR--VAUGHT

Bob Vaught of Shelbyna and Mrs. Myrtle Taylor of Chicago, Ill., were united in marriage in a ceremony performed in Kansas Friday. Mr. Vaught is the operator of a tobacco store in Shelbyna where they will make their home.

It is believed that actual construction will begin within two weeks. All those who have not purchased certificates of indebtedness in the building fund are asked to call at The Courier office or the Clarence State Bank on the any member of the finance committee.

MISS EFFIE HADEN

Miss Effie Haden, 62, died suddenly at her home in south Clarence where she had lived for the past 33 years, at 11:45 Thursday night following a short illness. Funeral rites were conducted from the family home on South Center street Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock with Rev. Max Horner, pastor of the Christian church in Clarence officiating and interment was in Maplewood cemetery here.

Miss Haden, daughter of the late Andrew Cosby Haden, who died in 1925, was born on a farm near Woodlawn south of Clarence, December 3, 1884, one of a family of three.

A member of the Christian church at Woodlawn, she came to Clarence in 1914 where she had since made her home. She is survived by her step-mother, Mrs. Helen L. Haden, of the family home here.

Among those from out of town attending the funeral services were: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Haden of Shelbyna, Misses Opal Walker and Ruth Browitt of Macon, Mrs. Tucker Haden of Moberly, Mrs. Herbert Pitts of Chicago, Mrs. Charles Musick and son, Ben W., of Kingfisher, Okla.

MRS. GIDDENS, FORMER OLARENCE CITIZEN, DIES

Word was received at this office yesterday telling of the death of Mrs. W. N. Giddens, 66, wife of the late Rev. Wilson Giddens, former minister of the Methodist church in Clarence. Mrs. Giddens died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Marvin Larkin, in Litchfield, Ill., Saturday morning at 7:00 o'clock.

Funeral services were held from the Carroll & Son funeral home in Litchfield Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and interment was in Elmwood cemetery there. She is survived by a son, Wilbur Giddens of Lilbourn, Mo., two daughters, Mrs. Larkin of Litchfield and Mrs. Charles Blauw of Kansas City and several brothers and sisters.

NO COURTHOUSE NEWS

The biggest news at the courthouse this week was the fact that cutting Attorney Fred Bollow on his vacation and some other officers ill, news happenings were at a minimum.

The only court action was in circuit court where the damage suit, Winifred Pulse vs. Rymer Jones, was dismissed on application of the plaintiff.

Cleve Adams started to work this week at Ed's Hardware.

of two daughters, Mrs. Trussell, with whom she lives and Mrs. Della Hogan of DeSoto, Mo., and two sons, W. G. Bohannon of Moberly and J. L. Bohannon of Michigan City, Ind. She has 23 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren and one great grand-daughter.

MRS. O. O. HEDRICK MAKES OFFICIAL O. E. S. VISIT

Thursday evening Mrs. O. O. Hedrick, district deputy grand matron of the 14th district of Order of Eastern Star, made her official visit to the Clarence chapter when a meeting was held at the Masonic hall.

Prior to the meeting a large Bible and two small ones, purchased by the new officers of the chapter, were presented by the chapter in a ceremony by Mrs. Leonard Collins, Mrs. Kenneth Oyley, Misses Mary Walker, Dorothy Bailey and Charlotte Thompson. They were assisted by Mrs. M. A. Bailey, chaplain of the chapter.

During the evening Rev. Max Horner, Christian minister, contributed two solos and following the opening of the chapter a social hour was enjoyed during which time delicious refreshments were served.

Guests of the chapter were: Miss Bettie Craig, music instructor in Clarence high school, who is worthy matron of Philadelphia chapter, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown of Excello, Mrs. Hettie Burk, Mrs. E. T. Thompson, Mrs. Lee Staggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hilber and Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Walker of Shelbyville.

MRS. GIDDENS, FORMER OLARENCE CITIZEN, DIES

Word was received at this office yesterday telling of the death of Mrs. W. N. Giddens, 66, wife of the late Rev. Wilson Giddens, former minister of the Methodist church in Clarence. Mrs. Giddens died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Marvin Larkin, in Litchfield, Ill., Saturday morning at 7:00 o'clock.

Funeral services were held from the Carroll & Son funeral home in Litchfield Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and interment was in Elmwood cemetery there. She is survived by a son, Wilbur Giddens of Lilbourn, Mo., two daughters, Mrs. Larkin of Litchfield and Mrs. Charles Blauw of Kansas City and several brothers and sisters.

TELEPHONE STRIKE WILL HAVE NO LOCAL EFFECT

If the proposed telephone strike takes place April 7 it will have no effect on the Clarence exchange, according to a report from the telephone office. In that local employees are not members of the union they will continue at their jobs despite strikes elsewhere.

The only effect that the strike would have would be to tie up long distance connections except for emergency calls.

MRS. DIAL PREDEMORE

Mrs. Dial Predemore, 65, formerly Clarence resident, of Ely, east of Monroe City, died in St. Elizabeth hospital in Hannibal Thursday.

Funeral rites were conducted from the First Baptist church in Clarence yesterday afternoon with Rev. E. R. Davis officiating and interment was in Maplewood cemetery here. Hammons were in charge of the service.

As the former Lida Lorene Bralley she was born September 20, 1881 in West Virginia. Surviving her in addition to her husband are ten children, five boys and five girls, also two brothers and one sister. Leopold Pridemore of Clarence is a son.

Announce Births

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shields of Bismarck, N. D., are announcing the arrival of a daughter. The new arrival, the second child of the Shields, has been named Patricia Louise. She has a 4 year old brother, James Arthur. The children are grandchildren of Mrs. Mabel Shields of Clarence.

Word has been received here telling of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. (Jimmy) Whitney of Trenton. The baby was born at 11 o'clock Thursday night in the Cullers hospital there, weighing seven and one-half pounds. He has been given the name of Gregory Don. He is a nephew of Donald R. Whitney of Clarence. His father visits in Clarence frequently and comes here twice a week for duties at the Midwest Poultry Farms Hatchery.

TELEPHONE STRIKE WILL HAVE NO LOCAL EFFECT

If the proposed telephone strike takes place April 7 it will have no effect on the Clarence exchange, according to a report from the telephone office. In that local employees are not members of the union they will continue at their jobs despite strikes elsewhere.

The only effect that the strike would have would be to tie up long distance connections except for emergency calls.

JUNIOR PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT C. H. S. TUESDAY NIGHT

The junior high school play "The Sunshine Twins" which was to have been presented Friday evening at the Clarence high school auditorium and was postponed will be given in the high school Tuesday evening, April 8, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

the group. "The Easter Story," Harold and Cula Hanlin will sing a duet "Joy Comes in the Morning" while a male quartet composed of Rev. Rigg, Frank Hughes, Howard Thompson and J. L. Melsner will sing. The Easter message will be given by Rev. Ford Miller, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene with the closing hymn "Christ Arose" by the congregation. Climaxing the service Mrs. Ford Miller will pronounce the benediction.

Rev. Fr. Thomas Gray announces that mass will be held at St. Patrick's Catholic church in Clarence Easter Sunday morning beginning at 8:30. Also mass will be held that morning at St. Michael's Catholic church at Hagers Grove of which he is minister. Sunday morning which was Palm Sunday, the blessing was given, the palm was distributed and the passion read.

In previous years at Easter time, sunrise breakfasts have been held at the churches but this Easter none have been planned. During the 11 o'clock hour at the Methodist church Easter morning the young people under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Griswold, Jr., will have charge. Pre-Easter services are being held by the Methodists three evenings this week. Tonight Mrs. Frank Griswold, Jr., has charge with the young people taking part, tomorrow evening Mrs. Harry Snyder will lead the women, while last night Richard Snyder was in charge of the service.

Friday afternoon beginning at 1:30 union Good Friday services are being held at the Church of the Nazarene and will last for one hour. The program is as follows: Prelude, song "All Hail the Power" by the congregation; prayer and scripture reading, Rev. Ford Miller; song "The Old Rugged Cross", congregation; special instrumental and vocal numbers by the music department of Clarence high school; Good Friday sermon, Rev. F. W. Rigg; song "Near the Cross", congregation; benediction, Rev. Max Horner. The public is issued a special invitation to attend these services.

JUNIOR PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT C. H. S. TUESDAY NIGHT

The junior high school play "The Sunshine Twins" which was to have been presented Friday evening at the Clarence high school auditorium and was postponed will be given in the high school Tuesday evening, April 8, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

JUNIOR PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT C. H. S. TUESDAY NIGHT

The junior high school play "The Sunshine Twins" which was to have been presented Friday evening at the Clarence high school auditorium and was postponed will be given in the high school Tuesday evening, April 8, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

JUNIOR PLAY TO BE GIVEN AT C. H. S. TUESDAY NIGHT

The junior high school play "The Sunshine Twins" which was to have been presented Friday evening at the Clarence high school auditorium and was postponed will be given in the high school Tuesday evening, April 8, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

Clarence	$88.00
Hagers Grove	14.00
Hopper	12.00
Copenhaver	12.00
Brewington	5.00
St. Pleasant	11.00
Schwada	12.00
Macon county	2.00
Jefferson Township
Mrs. Grover Larrick
Mrs. Lonnie Bruner
Chinn	$12.00
Taylor	12.00
Shale	12.00
Stalcup	12.00
Maud	12.00
Bishop	12.00
Lily Dale	12.00
Liberty	12.00
Martin	12.00
Tiger Fork Township
Mrs. Paul Secretist
Roy Bigelow, Chairman	$5.00
Iron Bridge	5.00
Whitelock	5.00
Elgin	5.00
Brags	5.00
Weedon	5.00
Valley Grove	5.00
Black Creek Township
Mrs. E. P. Threlkeld, Chairman
Shelbyville	$50.00
Nesbit	7.50
Rookwood	10.00
Robinson	10.00
Chick	5.00
Enterprise	7.50
Red Star	12.50
Freeman	12.50
Frye	10.00
Duncan	7.50
North River Township
Mrs. Perry Parsons, Chairman
Mrs. Rolla Davis, Chairman
Emden	$30.00
Parsons	15.00
Jackson Township
Mrs. Dan Reidt,
Mrs. Howard Kent, Chairman
Hunnwell	$40.00
Gooch	7.50
Prairie View	12.50
Oak Dale	8.00
Beatley	7.50
Hightower	7.50
Kendall	7.50
Union Chapel	6.00
Lakeman	14.00
Salt River Township
J. T. Latimer,
Mrs. Hurley Parsons, Chairman
Shelbina	$144.00
Eaton	7.00
Hale	7.00
Gurdane	5.00
Walkersville	6.50
Ridge	6.00
Given	6.00
Prairie	6.00
Morman	6.00
Graham	10.00