was established January 1st, 1875, when Charles Henry Lasley entered a partnership with Chester Cotton, under the firm name of Cotton & Lasley.

He came to Shelbina from a farm in Monroe County in 1870, at the age of seventeen, and began clerking in the store of A. Mounce & Co., only thirteen years after the town was founded.

Later, partnerships were with Taylor Thompson (1881), B. Million (1890), and George Gose, a half brother (1893).

Roy, the oldest son, entered the business in 1901, Russell in 1905, Roland in 1913 (the year Henry Lasley died), and Wm. Kenneth in 1918.

The business, now in its 83rd year, is operated by the last three named sons, and it is today one of the oldest clothing stores in Missouri.
